

How to slay terrible monsters

by Beowulf

Weaponry

It is really important to have weapons when you are fighting a monster.

Sword should be made of the strongest steel, which cuts even the toughest of monster skins.

After every battle it's important to clean your precious sword using fluffy white sheep's fleece.

And lock it a way in a safe chest.

Armour

Your precious armour needs to be strong and light weight but not too big or small.

You should wash your rare, shiny armour and never lend your armour to anyone else. It is very important to clean your precious armour once a week using polish and geese feathers.

Preparing for battle

You must exercise every day to get your muscles big and strong. You should climb fifty trees, swim twenty miles and lift thirty logs every morning. Also remember to eat your spinach daily.

Don't forget to say good bye to your family and friends because you don't know if you will return from battle.

Strategy

You need a strategy to kill your enemy, you can jump and kill them, or sneak up and kill them.

You need to get ready to fight because you never know when you will be attacked or if they are good at fighting and you might die. So be prepared, be careful and surprise your enemy.

Beasts you may encounter

You may encounter a variety of terrible monsters, these could include: horrible bad hags, terrible wicked monsters, ten headed bulls, hundred sided shoes and a 1,750 headed venomous snakes.

Taking care of your self

It is vital that you take a kit of potions, so you can get well again. Building a tree house to rest for a couple of days, to recover and stay out of the monster's path, while you plan your next move.

How to choose your battles and secure your rewards

Your rewards for slaying monsters will be fame, increased hero status and plenty of treasure, gold, silver, diamonds and pearls

Not all monsters are worth fighting, because some monsters can be nice and helpful.

It is also worth remembering to pick your battles wisely, as not all kings or thanes will part easily with their treasures.
